Call for Papers:

Asian Journal for Public Opinion Research

The Asian Journal for Public Opinion Research (AJPOR) is the journal of the Asian Network for Public Opinion Research (ANPOR). AJPOR is published quarterly online.

Indexing: AJPOR is indexed in Scopus and DOAJ.

Topics: Papers related to public opinion in or about any Asian country or countries can be considered. Topics may include, but are not limited to:
- Quality of life
- Political polling/elections
- Media studies
- Health/nursing
- Science/risk
- Social networking/big data
- Survey Methodology
- Public opinion polls on other subjects

Types of articles considered:
- Original research papers
- Research notes
- Poll reviews
- Book reviews
- Extended abstracts of papers previously published in another language

Publication Fee - A publication fee of $200US/paper up to 4000 words (including abstract, references, and tables) is charged. If a paper is longer than 4000 words, an additional $50US will be charged for each additional 500 words. Those in need of a partial or full publication fee waiver should contact AJPORSubmissions@gmail.com prior to submitting.

Special Issue: Information about submitting to upcoming special issues, including the August 2020 special issue on Methods Used for Public Opinion Research in Asia, are announced on the website.

Submission guidelines – Author guidelines and ethics guidelines are available on our website (ajpor.org). AJPOR uses APA style. Submissions should be made online using the e-Submission system.

Contact – If you have any questions or difficulty using the e-Submission system, please e-mail AJPORSubmissions@gmail.com.

–